Synergy Christian Trust is a registered charity that was established in 2000 by a number of Trevor & Ruth Ranger's friends. The aim of the trust is to 'advance the Christian faith', mostly through Trevor's work with schools and churches in the West of England area. However, the use of Trevor's all-age worship songs (both on & offline) has extended Synergy's ministry to many other areas of the world.

Synergy's logo of a jigsaw piece represents its partnership with other Christians, within the bigger picture of God's Church.

The trustees regularly meet with Trevor & Ruth, offering them encouragement and advice on a wide range of issues. To carry out its work, Synergy is entirely dependent on the financial support of churches and individuals.

Trevor and Ruth Ranger met and were trained for Christian ministry at Moorlands College. Two weeks after their graduation in 1990, they were married and together, they have been sharing the good news of Jesus ever since. They have two grown up children, Samuel and Joanna.

Trevor helps children and young people to explore the Christian faith in a way that is engaging, educational and which supports the work of local schools and churches. Each year, Trevor conducts more than 140 assemblies in up to 15 local schools. He also leads and speaks at church services in a wide variety of settings and contexts.
